11.2 CORTEN STEEL VASE HOLDER

$1,290

DESCRIPTION

In this striking vase holder with no bottom in the shape of a box with its flaps open, every piece is welded with an artisanal method that creates a one-of-a-kind object. The process of oxidation of corten steel stabilizes in two years and protects the internal layer that won't corrode in time, while the outside will change color in time. The metal naturally releases particles that can be visible on light or porous surfaces.
