ADSPERA SILVER PLATED CENTERPIECE NO. 2

$210

DESCRIPTION

An exquisite and unique addition to a contemporary home, this elegant centerpiece is part of the Adspira collection designed by Chiara Andreatti for Paola C. Entirely crafted of metal with a silver plated finish, the shimmering surface of the piece is cut in the center with a single line that gives it the look of a stylized shell. Either alone, to display fruit or collectible on a dining table or console, or combined with the other items in the same collection for a dynamic effect, this centerpiece will make an elegant statement.
