AGARI AISA VASE

DESCRIPTION

Handmade in Umbria, this open vase is inspired by the textures and colors of the forest in the spring. The square silhouette is crafted of steel and grey-colored wool, while the exterior is covered in a soft blend of grey merino wool and mohair: this unconventional combination of materials and colors adds textural depth, creating a captivating composition. The distinctive, puzzle piece-like detail on the side of the vase is a stunning finishing touch. As an accent on a side table or a desk, this piece will enliven any decor.
