ALAN TORSO BRONZE SCULPTURE

$10,880

DESCRIPTION

This bronze bust is an original sculpture made in 2003 by Raffaello Romanelli. Its classical lines draw the attention to the artist's careful study of muscles, while the broken legs and arms give a sense of antique and stress the characteristics of bronze. For the piece, Raffaello Romanelli used a live model in accordance with the traditional technique of observation and simultaneous hand-modeling of a clay sculpture, the first mold for achieving the bronze piece.
