AMANTA MEDIUM CONSOLE BY DANILO SILVESTRIN

$12,080

DESCRIPTION

An eye-catching design with a nod to the silhouette of Japanese pagodas that was created in 1987 by Danilo Silvestrin. The base of this streamlined, simple frame is made of solid pietra serena (gray sandstone) in an angled shape and features two cylindrical elements in black Marquinia upon which a massive white Carrara rectangular top rests. This elegant console will be a sophisticated accent to a living room or entryway paired with understated lighting and decorative accents.
