ANTEA FOUNTAIN PEN IN BUBINGA WOOD

$270

DESCRIPTION

This elegant fountain pen is a fashionable and timeless piece made of bubinga, a magnificent African wood that is very resistant with a striking red color and irregular purple veins that make each object absolutely unique. The metal accents in rhodium, with their characteristic gleam, add character to the pen that can be customized with engravings upon request. Because of its handmade nature, this piece can slightly differ from the picture shown.
