APOLLO BELVEDERE SCULPTURE

$1,030

DESCRIPTION

This magnificent bust of Apollo, the Greek god of art, medicine, and music is directly inspired by the classic marble statues in the Roman tradition. The stunning god appears here in profile, a stern gaze on this handsome face, as he has just killed the python - as in the mythological tale of the oracle of Delphi. His cloak is gathered at the shoulder with a pin, while his curls fall on his neck, fastened by an ornamental band. This magnificent piece will be a superb addition to a traditional entryway or living room.
