APPENNINO KNIFE WITH OXHORN HANDLE

$150

DESCRIPTION

This unique object was entirely handmade by a Berti artisan and features a magnificent ox horn handle with a very small and curved stainless steel blade. This piece, that comes in its own case and is also ideal as a gift, is created for making a small cut on chestnuts, right before they get roasted, to prevent them from exploding while they're cooking. Exquisite and functional, this piece will be a striking addition to any kitchen and dining room.
