ARTARE BUTSUDAN TEMPLE

$178,000

DESCRIPTION

Combining religion and design in a one-of-a-kind, imposing piece of furniture, this temple is made up of a bottom part in dark brown hand-lacquered wood with two doors opening into a storage compartment and a brass tabernacle at the top with two L-shaped doors that allow for a complete opening. The piece is framed by three panels in the same precious metal and is enriched by the presence of prune-colored wool embroideries. This exquisite and evocative piece is also available in bronzed brass or in hammered steel. Please ask the concierge for details and changes in price with customizations.
