ASTRO WHITE WALL MIRROR

$1,570

DESCRIPTION

Perfectly suited to any modern interior, this futuristic-looking mirror will add character to any living room or bedroom. Sure to increase light and space, this unconventional design is entirely handcrafted of solid iron rods with a white lacquered finish, and features an attractive convex frame that extends out with a round mirror in its center. Designed by Simone Micheli for the Filodiferro Collection, this simple, minimalist style will also look stunning when featured in an entryway above a sleek console, adding a subtle decorative flair to any wall.
