ATARI LARGE TABLE LAMP

$1,845

DESCRIPTION

With its original design, this captivating lamp of Stéphane Parmentier's Atari collection inspired by the video games graphic of the late '70s, adds instant glamour to any desk or console table. The base is made of the finest saddle leather and features white grooves on the geometric pattern created by black tiles, while the oversized white drum shade softens the tonal contrast. An elegant blend of modern style with whimsical details, this is a statement-making lamp that will be noticed.
