DESCRIPTION

A simple revisitation of a classic silhouette, this 70s-style chair will add a touch of lightness and subtle elegance to any dining room or living room decor. The open back upholstered in white leather gracefully flows into the sloping, saber-shaped back legs while the square seat in ebonized wood is supported by two tapered front legs with gold-finished metal caps. The streamlined silhouette complements the lilac-colored cushion whose soft padding allows for long-lasting comfort. The combination of materials and colors creates a contrast that enhances the allure of any interior space.
