AUTUMN CHAIR WITH GRAY PADDED SEAT

$1,100

DESCRIPTION

Part of the Autumn series of chairs that feature angular wooden components crafted into fluid lines, this stunning chair has a fully open back and armrests, which curve as one piece into the front legs. The ash frame is completed with a sloped plywood seat shaped for maximum comfort, which is slightly padded and upholstered in an elegant gray shade of Kvadrat wool. Slanted back legs and an X-shaped seat support complete this modern design that will complement any interior with understated sophistication.
