AUTUMN CHAIR WITH NATURAL WOOD SEAT

$1,060

DESCRIPTION

A perfect example of effortless aesthetics coupled with contemporary functionality and expert craftsmanship, this chair has a clever construction made of ash in a natural finish. The curved backrests flow elegantly into the armrests and front legs, while the slanted backrests create a visual balance with the slightly angled seat made of Canaletto walnut veneered plywood. This piece of minimal aesthetic will bring modern simplicity and classic elegance into any living room decor.
