BARK BRASS BOWL

$1,980

DESCRIPTION

This stunning object of functional decor will be a unique accent on a dining table, entryway console or living room coffee table. Its structure, entirely crafted of wrought brass, creates a striking bowl that can be used to display a variety of items, while also adding a modern and sophisticated texture to any room. The external surface of this piece is hand-engraved with bronzed veins and then polished, and rests on a net of brass threads welded together. This handcrafted piece is made upon request.
