BLACK SQUARE PANEL OF SANTO SPIRITO CHURCH

$160

DESCRIPTION

Sophisticated yet understated, this panel will be at home in a living room or study, imparting artistic flair. Made of repurposed wood, this panel features Basilica di Santo Spirito designed by Renaissance architect Filippo Brunelleschi, hand-carved, painted, and assembled over a black wooden panel. The silhouette is painted in an ochre acrylic tempera applied in the "encausto veneziano" style which complements the blue details in the rose window, doors, and roof. Admired by art lovers and novices alike, this panel is a one-of-a-kind piece crafted with utmost attention to detail.
