$1,210

DESCRIPTION

Entirely handcrafted of brass, this striking choker will add a luxurious touch to a simple little black dress or monochromatic evening attire. Designer Madina Visconti harnessed the allure of the ancient lost-wax technique to obtain the splendid definition and movement of the feathers wrapping around the neck in a sensual embrace. Dramatic and stunning, this piece boasts a warm, golden hue that enhances its vintage allure, making it the perfect choice for a romantic outfit. This accessory can be paired with one or more pieces from the same collection for a complete look.
