BRUNO NERI LIVINGROOM CONSOLE 1935

$25,850

DESCRIPTION

This exquisite piece of furniture can be used as an entertainment console in a living room for storage. Its external structure is crafted in ebony macassar striped wood and its glossy top is in opaline glass with a black tint. The two lateral edges of this piece are also in ebony macassar and the console is supported by two feet in bronze. Two parchment covered doors, with ebony accents at their top, open to reveal an interior with shelves in smoked maple wood with ebony macassar edges. Designed by Antonio Berdondini, year 1935
