CAFE' DE LA MARIE BIN WITH LID BY ELENA CUTOLO

$965

DESCRIPTION

Part of the Paris in the Twenties Collection dedicated to the places attended by Ernst Hemingway, this whimsical bin is a captivating tribute to Cafè de la Mairie in St-Sulpice, where artist Elena Cutolo read Festa Mobile while sipping on a kir. Made entirely of aluminum, the cylindrical yellow base is topped with a removable purple conical lid with an aubergine rim and red spherical accent. The playful combination of colors and shapes makes this piece of functional decor an ideal accent in a minimalist living room or private study. Every piece is made to order.
