DESCRIPTION

An exercise in balance and sophistication, this chandelier is an ideal decoration for a large living room when placed above a stately dining table. The structure is in brass with a natural finish and comprises a round base with 14 arms stemming from a ceiling cup and attached to a large ring. From the external perimeter of the ring, 14 horizontal elements support a half-spherical cup painted black to create a color combination that is timeless and visually striking. Contract and commercial certifications available upon request.
