CAMILLO COBALT SOFA

$15,905

DESCRIPTION

This sofa has a captivating allure that exudes extreme and unique comfort. The structure combines fine materials such as poplar and fir, and is equipped with an elastic belt spring system and padded with multi-density and highly-resistant polyurethane and memory foam covered with thermo-bonded fiber mixed with flexible jersey fabric. The large and soft cushions are filled with 100% European goose feathers, and 10% down. The velvet fabric upholstery of this modular piece boasts an intense blue color and is completely removable.
