CATENE NERO HIGH BOWL BY GIO PONTI

$330

DESCRIPTION

Elegant and versatile, whit high bowl will make a statement in a classic or modern interior, either used as deep wide poche or combined with the other items in the same Catene collection, designed by legendary artist Gio Ponti in 1926. to create a complete set of superb tableware. Entirely crafted of porcelain, this piece is part of the Nero series, named after the black color of its chain-like pattern, which repeats on the interior rim and outside, strikingly contrasting with the pure white of the background and complementing the refined gold details on top and bottom.
