CECILIA ARMCHAIR

$4,405

DESCRIPTION

This stunning chair will make an elegant statement in a study, reading nook, or living room, where it will suit both a classic or modern decor, offering comfort and relax on any occasion. The solid wood and plywood structure is padded with multi-density polyurethane. The curled feet finished in dark lacquer elegantly complement the dark piping of the white removable cover. These dark details highlight the curves and enveloping silhouette of this chair, which can be combined with the other seating options by Sothouse for a dynamic look.
