CEDRICK BRONZE SCULPTURE

$9,930

DESCRIPTION

This bronze sculpture is an original work executed in 2005 by the sculptor Raffaello Romanelli. The piece focuses on the anatomical study of a complex pose. It was copied from a live model using the traditional technique of observation and simultaneous hand-modeling of a clay sculpture, the first mold for achieving the bronze piece. This piece was published in the Italian specialist magazine "Artista" in 2010.
