CUBO RA II STUA NIGHTSTAND

$1,220

DESCRIPTION

Functional design at its utmost expression, this cubic piece of furniture performs a dual function as an accent piece and storage cabinet. The wood entirely handcrafted from recovered and restored planks of old barns, whose colors result from exposure to the environmental conditions: gray for wind and rain, red for sun. This unique piece features a door with a small wooden knob and hidden latch. The wood is treated with natural oils for a finish that respects and highlights its distinct veins and knots. This piece will make a joyful addition to any room providing additional storage with an unconventional look.
