DAMASCUS COPPER CANDLE HOLDER

$170

DESCRIPTION

Unique and handmade upon request, this elegant and modern candle holder will add a special accent to an entryway, living room or study and can be displayed in pairs or combined with the others in brass and stainless steel. Its cylindrical body is made entirely of solid turned copper with a top rim in steel. The external surface of the piece is polished and bronzed on a naked flame to obtain the one-of-a-kind nuances that grace it.
