DEER CORKSCREW

$105

DESCRIPTION

The rustic design of this piece is balanced by its exquisite craftsmanship and the use of elegant materials to create a timeless table accessory that will be sophisticated on any occasion. The body of this corkscrew is in beechwood with a warm brown color, accented with details made of brass with a golden finish. The handle is in durable acetate with a finish that resembles wood made in the shape of the head of a deer with a majestic set of antlers.
