EFESTO RING

$39,360

DESCRIPTION

Named after the Greek god of fire Hephaestus, this sophisticated ring is brimming with the energy and strength of the stones that compose it. The yellow gold mounting is adorned on shoulder and bridge with a series of diamonds (.87 carat), while all around the shank a series of oval rubies (19.4 carats) are a luxurious complement to the central rubellite (13.05). The combination of materials and stones brings forth a feminine quality that makes this ring a superb choice for a special occasion. This singular piece measures 55 (adjustable to a size 53), please consult the Concierge.
