ERBOSO VINTAGE FLAP SECRETARY DESK

$3,400

DESCRIPTION

Ensuring a stunning focal point in a classic bedroom, living room, or home office, this secretary desk stands out for its captivating aesthetic and antique charm. Part of the stage set from Scene II of “L’incantatrice di serpenti”, this desk pays homage to the 17th-century Italian tradition of floral-style lacquered furniture. Handcrafted of solid wood, the desk stands tall on cabriole legs and features a flap top and two drawers, entirely painted by hand with an abstract pattern using a blue palette of acrylic paints.
