FISH TEAPOT BY LE CERAMICHE D'ESTE

DESCRIPTION

This intriguing and sophisticated teapot is a tribute to the renowned ceramic tradition of the Italian north-western coastal town of Este. Based on original 18th-century sketches and molds by sculptor and goldsmith Girolamo Franchini, this teapot is entirely handmade of white ceramic and depicts a large fish eating a smaller one, with the tail forming the handle and the fin the lid. A splendid gift on any occasion, this teapot will add a sophisticated accent to an afternoon tea table.
