GERARD SCREEN

$11,980

DESCRIPTION

Evoking the glamour of the past with a modern silhouette, this elegant 3-panel screen has a vintage appeal that will complement both classic or modern decor. Framed entirely of polished brass, the side panels are crafted of sand-colored bird's eye maple with stylized engravings that recall the design on the central panel upholstered in quilted brown leather. Finished on both sides, the back is all in a neutral lacquered beige color. The mix of colors and textures creates a visually alluring piece that can be used as a room divider or purely decorative focal point.
