GLITTER CARAMEL AND POLISHED GOLD READING GLASSES

$190

DESCRIPTION

A contemporary reinterpretation of the 18th century spectacles, Fassamano (from the French "face-À-main") gives this functional object a new, glamorous life. Entirely handcrafted in Italy, this frame is made of cellulose acetate from Mazzucchelli 1849 and crafted using CNC technology for high precision. The rims are in glitter caramel and the nickel silver structure has a polished gold finish. Lenses included with a corrective strength of +2.00, but prescription lenses (range +1.00 to +3.00) can be added thanks to the exclusive Fassamano patented rim closure. Waxed cotton cord included.
