GOTHAM LITTLE BENCH

$1,160

DESCRIPTION

A stylish combination of natural and industrial materials, this hand-made bench designed by Federico Carandini, 2018, captures the essence of Eponimo's philosophy of crafting captivating pieces between the minimal and the opulent. This compact design has a lightweight steel frame made of thin, squared rods finished in grey cadet color that form three open squares. The padded seat is covered in velvet cotton fabric in a refined sea-foam shade. This bench will be a functional and fashionable accent in an entryway, bedroom or living room. Presented at Fuorisalone during Milan Design Week 2018.
