DESCRIPTION

A striking mix of striped and checkerboard patterns grace this superb bowl of the Hacker Collection, designed by DWA Studio and curated by Paolo De Vivo. Entirely handcrafted of basalt, the hypnotic combination of deep black and gold-speckled fine-grained textures infuse this piece with great aesthetic allure and are a testament to the masterful manual work that stands behind it. Due to the natural quality of the material, each piece will reveal individual features that might slightly differ from the pictured item.
