HELLA LIGHT BLUE BENCH

$4,205

DESCRIPTION

Hella is a sculptural metallic bench characterized by geometric and wave shapes. The metal structure comprises two cylindrical supports for the seat marked with a wavy silhouette. The design of this bench will add an elegant sense of movement and ample extra seating to a contemporary decor. Hella bench is 100% made of endlessly recyclable aluminium. Hella bench is also suitable for outdoor use and is entirely handcrafted in Italy.
