HORIZON RED SOFA BY ARIK LEVY

$9,810

DESCRIPTION

Exuding a comfortable aesthetic, this sofa features an internal plywood frame padded with elastic expanded polyurethane and Dacron supported by brushed-aluminum block feet. At home in any modern and contemporary living room, this sophisticated design by Arik Levy is covered in fire-red leather and features a geometric silhouette with square arms and a slightly higher headrest. The seat cushions and large bolster-style pillows have multi-density polyurethane padding. Customization is available in catalog fabric, synthetic material, eco-leather, and the customer's own leather or fabric.
