HUMAN BEING DESSERT PLATE N. 2

$70

DESCRIPTION

An exclusive piece introduced at Maison&Objet 2019 in Paris, this dessert plate is part of the Human Being Collection. The plate is crafted of fine porcelain and painted in a vivid shade of turquoise. The two central figures are depicted in stunning detail and don traditional Native American clothing and accessories. Enclosed in a white geometric frame, reminiscent of the patterns adorning the pottery created by Native American tribes, this piece is an elegant and eye-catching statement piece that will suit a modern or eclectic dining ware collection.
