HUMAN BEING DESSERT PLATE N. 4

$70

DESCRIPTION

This elegant and unique porcelain plate is part of a collection introduced at Maison&Objet 2019 in Paris. From the aptly named Human Being Collection, which features a central design of a couple, each surrounded with a different fine garland in white, over a different shade of green or blue. This piece is characterized by a pale green background enlivened by the portrait of two men dressed in the typical clothes of two different African tribes. For a stunning effect on an eclectic table, it is possible to combine all the designs in the series.
