HUMAN BEING DINNER PLATE N. 2

$110

DESCRIPTION

Part of the Human Being Collection, this porcelain dinner plate is introduced at the Maison&Objet 2019 in Paris. Elegantly showcasing the diverse and colorful clothing of different indigenous populations from across the globe, this series gives a unique glimpse into the riches of our shared human culture. This plate features two figures dressed in traditional Native American garments framed in a simple white rim over a deep turquoise background, reminiscent of the artistic heritage of the New World, surrounded by a multitude of other figures along the edge.
