HYALINE QUARTZ LOW BOWL

DESCRIPTION

One of the most popular varieties of quartz, hyaline is considered the purest rock crystal. The ancients believed it to be ice petrified by the gods, and this exquisite piece recalls that untainted brilliance. Featuring a low rim, this dazzling round bowl is skillfully crafted from a single block of Brazilian quartz, and meticulously hand polished to enhance the luminous qualities of this flawless stone. Truly eye-catching in any traditional or contemporary entryway, this piece befits a private art studio or desk area.
