I CURIOSI MAN VASE

$220

DESCRIPTION

Dream-like and eclectic, this elegant vase is part of the I Curiosi Collection (translating to "Curious People" in English). Fashioned of ceramic, the vase's classic, amphora-inspired silhouette is decorated entirely by hand with a series of blue, yellow, and brown parallel lines that accentuate the gentle curves of the piece. The alternating lines of color are punctuated by the image of a man's face, looking to one side with an inquisitive gaze. Exquisitely executed, this vase will enliven any decor.
