IRONY OUTDOOR POT PLANTER BY MAURIZIO PEREGALLI

$770

DESCRIPTION

An industrial-rustic decorative accessory suitable for both indoors and outdoors, this versatile pot planter can be used to display small trees or blossoming shrubs on a porch, patio, or to hold logs by the fireplace in a summer home or a mountain cabin. Made of a sheet steel in an epoxy-painted rust color with an embossed texture, the cylindrical shape is generously sized and features two functional cut-out handles. The base is open to allow water drainage and has two crossed bars with four casters wheels to easily move the planter.
