DESCRIPTION

Singular in its design and aesthetic appeal, this vintage decorative ceramic plate will elevate a study or living room decor with its satirical charm and timeless artistic aesthetic. Crafted by the Ceramiche Revelli in Laveno dating back to the 1900s, its pristine white glaze and softly undulating silhouette perfectly frame the 17th-18th-century print motif of people around a cooking pit in a domed Lappone structure, complete with a diagram study of the tented-home. A statement piece in a modern- or rustic-styled interior, this plate will make a precious gift for special occasions.
