LA CLOSERIE DES LILAS VASE BY ELENA CUTOLO

$810

DESCRIPTION

Part of the Paris in the Twenties Collection, this alluring vase exalts linear forms and simple colors in a captivating composition. The vase is a tribute to Brasserie La Closerie des Lilas in Paris, famous spot where Ernest Hemingway composed novels on the balcony in the company of cold beer and the Marshal Ney's statue. Expertly fashioned of aluminum, the vase is composed of a tall, red cylinder running through two flat blue discs to create a two-level design. Best paired with flowers or with other vases from the collection. Colors customizable upon request, please contact the Concierge.
