LARGE CARRARA MARBLE BAS-RELIEF PENELOPE

$1,800

DESCRIPTION

One of four bas-reliefs inspired by Greek mythology and masterfully carved on white Carrara marble by Milanese sculptor Fiorenzo Buttazzo, this splendid piece is dedicated to Penelope, wife of Ulysses, who waited twenty years for her husband to return from the Trojan war. Her pose is rendered in the style of Giorgio De Chirico, with stylized lines that convey love, longing, and faith.
