LEATHER CROSSBODY BAG "STRESA" - VIOLET AND BLACK

$510

DESCRIPTION

In this bag, 1056 cotton and viscose threads are tied one by one to make up the base of a unique and inimitable woven material. Cotton is waxed with potato flour starch, in line with the company's production processes that foster the use of natural, non-toxic materials. The highest expression of the best vegetable-tanned leather, skilfully processed by Tuscany tanneries, is used. The name of the bag "Stresa" is an Italian town in the province of Verbano-Cusio-Ossola, in Piedmont. Thanks to its position on the west coast of the Borromeo Gulf, is a famous lakeside tourist resort and is one of the most visited places of the entire Piedmontese territory.
