DESCRIPTION

This elegant and versatile side table will be a precious addition to both a modern and a classic home, thanks to its timeless allure and the unique combination of traditional materials and contemporary minimalism. The round base and central leg, both in brass, support a round top in Cortecchia marble, whose natural veins add a one-of-a-kind, striking decoration to the piece. Either alone or combined with the other side tables by this designer for a dynamic effect, this piece will enrich the look of any living room.
