DESCRIPTION

A sweet love story of the princess Mata who fell in love with the proud warrior Grifo inspires the female figure of this superb hanging wall cabinet. This vibrant and contemporary piece made in aluminum features a front mirror with colorful elements to render homage to the girl in the love story that is claimed to have founded the city of Messina in Sicily. This finely crafted, eclectic piece was presented at the 2019 edition of the Salone del Mobile di Milano and is made to order, please contact the Concierge.
