MEDITERRANEAN AGUGLIE VASE

$560

DESCRIPTION

The look of this piece is inspired by ancient Mediterranean pottery and is part of the Mediterranean collection designed by Sicilian artist Sergio Fiorentino. The striking glaze on the exterior of this vase bares exquisite reproductions of the Aguglia fish decorating its surface. The three shades of rich blue on the vase are inspired by the colors of the ocean and the blue hue of the sky. This piece can be paired with others in the collection or can stand alone enhancing any decor.
