Metamorphosis

META LIQUOR BOTTLE 34

$370

DESCRIPTION

The unique design of this bottle with lid is inspired by the shape of a beetle and specifically by its carapace that protects the animal till it overgrows it. The process of changing from one protective case to the other is called metamorphosis and inspired this entire collection of handmade pieces in mouth-blown borosilicate glass. The sinuous lines of this bottle are topped with a lid adorned with two antennae, left on the design as a clue of the provenance of the inspiration. This piece comes with a little encyclopedic print that matches it.
